

O.A.G.E.E. and R.C.G.S. Award Winners

Often, we fail to recognize the contributions of our fellow teachers as they develop new approaches to enhance teaching effectiveness in order to improve students' learning. These teachers have contributed a lifetime's worth of work towards the betterment of Geographic and Environmental Education.

Ontario Association For Geographic And Environmental Education

O.A.G.E.E. continually seeks to improve geographic and environmental education in the Province of Ontario.

Ethel Johnston

Toronto DSB

O.A.G.E.E. Award of Distinction Winner

The O.A.G.E.E. Award of Distinction is presented to an Ontario Educator who is passionate about and exemplifies great Geographic education within the Province of Ontario.

The Royal Canadian Geographical Society

The R.C.G.S. is dedicated to imparting a broader knowledge and deeper appreciation of Canada — its people and places, its natural and cultural heritage and its environmental, social and economic challenges.

Mark Lowry

Toronto District School Board

R.C.G.S. College of Fellows

All the nominees are extraordinary men and women who believe in the Society and are dedicated to informing Canadians and the world about this country.

Kim Wallace

Ministry of Education

R.C.G.S. College of Fellows

Mark and Kim join O.A.G.E.E. members Lew French, Jane Kerr-Wilson, Dick Mansfield, Anne Smith, and Paul VanZant as members of the RCGS College of Fellows

